UNENOWS SOLDIER KILLED.—A soldier, supposed to be Alexander Johnson, of Company F, 5-h Wisconsin volunteers, died yesterday or route to Armory Hospital from the front. In height he was five feet seven inches, hair dark brown, eyes blue, complexion light. His right hand had a star marked upon it, and the coal-of-arms of New York S ate upon the right arm. Upon the left arm, in India ink, was the crucifixion and an eagle.

ASSAULTING A GUARD.—John Mahoney, a cavalryman, was arrested by some of the guard on duty at the Old Capitol. He is charged with com-mitting a murderous assault on some of the guard at that prison. He was sent to the Guardhouse at that prison. He was sent to the Guardhouse by Capt. Todd.

Fonds's New Theather.—"Money."—This stering comedy, by the author of Richelleu, The Lady of Lyons, and other standard works, is to be presented at Ford's this evening, for the first and only time during the present cagagement, and perhaps the entire season. Mr. J. Wilkes Booth, whose engagement closes on Saturday evening next, will assume his inimitable refer fevelys, and will be supported by Messra. Pearson, Wheatleigh, De Vere, Miss Waite, Mrs. Chapman, and others, in the admirable style which characterizes the performances of the dramatic company engagement of Mr. Booth and the combination which gives him their firm co-exciton has been use of the most brilliant and lucrative ever enacted in any city south of New York.

During several days of cold and disagreeable weather there has been no diminution in the attendance at Ford's, this is doubliess owing in no inconsiderable degree to the manner in which the building has been made impervious to the strays of Borens and the train of coldness which new holds high revel in the streets and avenues of Washington. Fard's Theatre has proved itself during the twelve weeks it has been in operation an entire architectural success, and the significant that is shown the outhout every department of the Theatre recommends it as a fit place of amusement for the lovers of the true and beautiful. The slage department is under an excellent and experienced manager, Mr. W. C. Forbes; and the manner is which the variety of places which have been performed were put upon the stage reflects great credit upon his dramatic atill.

OFFICIAL NOTICES.

OFFICIAL NOTICES.

The front of the house, under its various officers, presents nightly a scene of beauty and brilliancy which is unsurpassed by any modern theatrs. To-morrow Mr. Booth has his final benefit, and presents (at the specasi solicitation of his many admirers) Shakespears's Richard III. We are assured that this is undoubtedly the last night of this great tragedy, and even this extra performance was not intended had not numerous personal applications rendered if almost imperative. If has been said of Mr. Booth's rendirion of Richard that he is perhaps the best representative of that elegant school of tragedians of which his late honored father was a distinguished a member. Certainly an higher compliment could be paid to the genius of one so young in years.

GROVEN'S THEATRE.—The great military The front of the house, under its various officers en distinguished a memoer. Caraniny as a second price of the compliment could be paid to the genius of one so young in years.

GROVER'S THEAVER.—The great military drams of the "Fresch Spy" is announced for production at this favorite theairs to-night. It has been a long time since Biles Western has favored our citizens with the presentation of this exciting play, and as it is one in which her artistic powers and great versalility are most fully displayed. She has made herself immensely popular in it, and never falls to draw a crowded house whe sever an exceeding farce of "Your Life's in Danger," in which that capital commedian, Hen Rogers, appears as John Strong. This is altogether a fine bill, and will fill Manager Grover's spacious theatre to overflowing.

SELPP'S MINESTMES.—Washington Theatre was literally crammed last night to witness the performances of the Amborhated Guibout, which gave entire satisfaction. The jokes were dail new and original; the beautiful singing of Messers, Reproids and Purcell was much applandiced, also the islantable drollery of Collins and Gaylord, but the great feature of the evening was the champion match dance between Tim Hayes, champion of Kogland, which caused the greatest excitement ever witnessed in any theatre. The repeated cheering of the audience as each man executed his dance showed the opinion was about equally divided.

CANYERDURT HALL.—The great military son-

CANYERBURY HALL.—The great military sensation, Mr. J. H. Childer, will appear again in his exciting performances to-night. Eathleen O'Neil, who, as a songstress and delineator of the homotous phases of Irish characters, has sew equals, will also appear in some of the most pleasing efforts. The remanish drams of "Black Connor; or, The White Boys of Ireland," is announced for its fourth time of representation, having proved a decided aucoses in the hands of Mr. Sinn's competent drams the commany. Miss Excepting De Faiber. tent dramatic company. Miss E-nestine De Faiber, Mons. Fouche, and all the ladies of the troupe will exemplify the "postry motion" in the beautiful ballet called the "Village Belle."

THE VARIETIES.—The performances at this popular resort are halled nightly with screams of laughter. None should fail to see Mafit and Bartholomev in their side-ticking pantonimes; the Hudworth brothers in their comicalities; Bob Hall and little Tommy (who, by the way, is a wend and ittle some way, in way, in wonderful performer for a juvenile) in their songs and dances; whilst the splendid dancing of Mons. Baptitistin and Mile. Win its alone is worth the priso of admission. Again the grand ballets, in their fascination and beautiful ladies, at the Varieties, realize all the draum of Eastern magnificence.
